A Visit to Drumstruck Shows Rosie's Got Rhythm

Date: 8/23/2005

There's no theater lover quite like Rosie O'Donnell. The vivacious former talk show host has starred on Broadway (Grease!, Seussical), educated youngsters (with Rosie's Broadway Kids, a program for NYC public schoolchildren), produced a musical (Taboo) and is about to step into the role of Golde in Fiddler on the Roof on the Great White Way. And let's just say that when O'Donnell gets into something, she really gets into it. So, you can imagine the enthusiasm with which she enjoyed off-Broadway's Drumstruck on August 23. O'Donnell had a blast at the interactive theatrical experience, which allows the audience to drum along with a troupe of 11 South and West African percussionists. Take a look!
